

CANARY WHARF

MAGAZINE

APRIL 2018

CAR COUTURE

FASHION AND TECHNOLOGY COMBINE
IN THIS YEAR'S MOST STYLISH SUPERCAR AND
SUV RELEASES

INTERVIEW

MARTIN FREEMAN

ON FAME, ACTING
AND WHY HE'S A
RELUCTANT CELEBRITY

Pack Your Bags

Mapping out this year's most desirable destinations

WORDS: MELISSA EMERSON

THE WATER FLOWER, MAI LOC

IN THE PICTURE

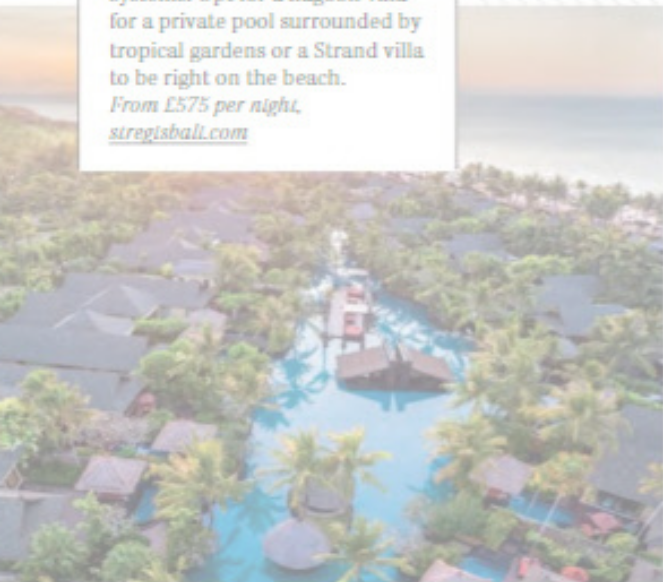

The work of local artists can be viewed throughout Vietnamese beach resort The Anam, and the hotel has now launched an art trail. Guests can choose from a list of painters, sculptors and photographers and visit their villages and workshops in the picturesque Khanh Hoa province, to learn more about their craft, before dining at a local seafood restaurant.

From $200 per night, art tours from $77 per person in a group of six, theanam.com

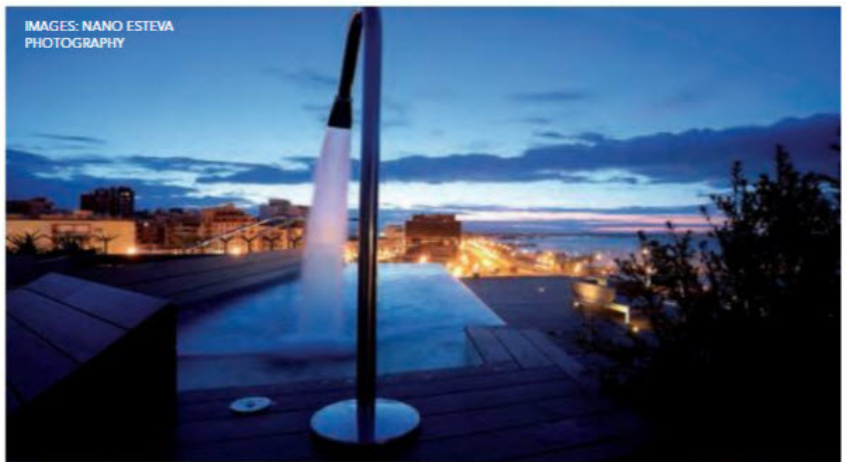

GRAND DESIGNS

The St. Regis Bali celebrates its tenth anniversary this year and its 41 villas have been upgraded for the occasion, with revamped interiors and new entertainment systems. Opt for a Lagoon villa for a private pool surrounded by tropical gardens or a Strand villa to be right on the beach.

From £575 per night, stregisbali.com

IMAGES: NANO ESTEVA PHOTOGRAPHY

MODERN MALLORCA

The family-owned Hotel Es Princep is now open adjacent to the Baluard del Princep, Palma's city wall. Sip cava on the panoramic rooftop terrace – complete with a pool – for the best views of this historic quarter and the ocean beyond, or sample cocktail wizardry in its bar, Gremium.

From €240 per night, esprincep.com

