

THE IRISH TIMES

An authentic Mallorcan experience overlooking the sea

Travel Bag: New Hotel Es Princep opens this month; Cork Airport boosts numbers; new bar at Monart hotel; and exploring Waterford's Greenway

By Jo Lineman

Made in Mallorca

The new Hotel Es Princep, Mallorca, welcomes its first guests this month. Privately owned by a Mallorcan family, the boutique hotel is in the Baluard in the Calatrava neighbourhood at the centre of Palma, overlooking the city and sea. An authentic Mallorca menu is set to be served in the Bala Roja restaurant under award-winning Chef Andreu Genestra, and the Cocô spa and rooftop terrace already have the approval of locals. See esprincep.com for more.

